2. AGREEMENT. By this Lease, Owner rents the Apartment to Resident. Resident agrees to pay Rent promptly on or before the first day of each month during the Term, and to pay all other charges payable under this Lease when they are due. Resident agrees to comply with all the terms and conditions of this Lease. Resident agrees that they are responsible to ensure that all Other Occupants, and all of Resident's guests, invitees and licensees comply with the terms and conditions of this Lease, and that any reference made to Resident herein, excluding Resident's duty to make required payments, applies equally to the Other Occupants of the Apartment, and to Resident's guests, invitees and licensees. For so long as Resident has not violated the terms of this Lease, Owner agrees that Resident may use the Apartment without interruption by Owner, except as herein described.

3. TERM. This Lease will begin on the Beginning Date and will continue until the Ending Date (the "Term"), subject to the rights of the parties to terminate the Lease as set forth herein. If Resident or Owner does not desire to renew this Lease, either Resident or Owner shall notify the other party in writing of its intent to terminate this Lease (a "Termination Notice") at least sixty (60) days prior to the Ending Date (the "Termination Notice Deadline"). Resident shall provide its Termination Notice either through the Apartment Community's online portal or by delivering a hard copy of its written notice to the leasing office. If Resident fails to deliver its Termination Notice on or before the Termination Notice Deadline, Resident shall be obligated to pay to Owner a Late Termination Fee (equal to the amount calculated by dividing the monthly rent payment by the number of days in the month multiplied by the number of days until the Termination Notice is received, but not to exceed 60 days), however, if Resident remains in the Apartment on a month-to-month basis following the Ending Date or if the Apartment is re-occupied within a period of sixty (60) days following the Ending Date, then Resident shall receive a credit against the Late Termination Fee for each day during such sixty (60) day period following the Ending Date that Resident remains in the Apartment (and pays the adjusted Monthly Rent in accordance with this paragraph) or that the Apartment is re-occupied. If neither Resident nor Owner provides a Termination Notice, or if Resident fails to vacate the Apartment on or prior to the Ending Date, then the Lease will continue beyond the Ending Date on a month-to-month basis on the same terms and conditions as provided herein for the Term, except that Monthly Rent shall be increased to one hundred thirty percent (130%) of the current Monthly Rent being charged for new leases at the Apartment Community. Further, until the termination of the month-to-month term, all other terms and conditions of this Lease may be changed by the Owner by giving one (1) month prior written notice to Resident of the change. This notice shall be binding on Resident. Any month-to-month term of this Lease may be terminated with a Termination Notice delivered by Resident or Owner not later than thirty (30) days prior to the proposed termination date of the month-to-month term, but in no event shall the Lease continue on a month-to-month basis for more than twelve (12) months following the Ending Date.

If Resident plans to vacate the Apartment on or after the Ending Date, Resident must notify Owner in writing at least sixty (60) days before the desired move-out date, or Resident will be liable for a Late Termination Fee as explained in the preceding paragraph, which will be rent in arrears under the terms of this Lease.

While this Lease is intended to begin on the Beginning Date, Owner does not promise that the Apartment will be ready and available for Resident on the Beginning Date. If Resident is not able to enter and occupy the Apartment on the Beginning Date due to holdover by the previous resident, or because of any cause reasonably beyond Owner's control, then this Lease will begin when Owner determines the Apartment is ready and available for occupancy and the Beginning Date will be adjusted to reflect the actual date that Resident takes possession of the Apartment. If Owner delivers possession of the Apartment to Resident prior to the Beginning Date, such possession shall be subject to the terms and conditions of this Lease and Resident agrees to pay prorated rent for any such period that Resident has possession of the Apartment. In the event of an adjustment to the Beginning Date, no Rent or other charges will be due from Resident until the later Beginning Date, and Owner will not be liable for any damages to Resident because of the later Beginning Date.

4. RENT. Resident promises and agrees to pay the full amount of the Rent stated in paragraph 1(f), in advance, without notice or demand, on or before the first day of each month during the Term. In addition to mailing a check or money order to the Owner's address as provided on the first page of this Agreement, Resident may make all Rent payments (a) online by either electronic bank ACH transfer, debit card or credit card (Visa, MasterCard, Discover or American Express); or (b) through Owner's designated Walk-in Payment System (WIPS) program. Owner will not accept Rent payments made in cash, and in no event will Owner accept Rent payments made at the leasing office. Owner will consider any payment of less than the full amount owed as a partial payment, acceptance of which will not affect Owner's right to collect the full balance due, and such acceptance shall in no way be construed as a modification of this Lease. Resident also promises and agrees to pay all other charges imposed by this Lease no later than the first day of the month following the date on which Owner delivers the bill to Resident. All such sums will be additional Rent under the terms of this Lease. If Owner receives the Rent on or after the fourth day of the month and before the tenth day of the month, then Resident will pay a late charge of $25.00; and if on or after the tenth day of the month, then Resident will pay an additional late charge of $50.00. Late charges are additional Rent under this Lease, will be added to Resident's account, and will be paid by Resident regardless of whether billed by Owner. Owner's failure to bill the late charges will not waive the Owner's right to collect the late charges, and Owner's right to collect late charges will be in addition to its other rights and remedies under this Lease. If any Rent payment has not been received by the Owner by the 7th day of the month, or if Resident fails to pay any other charges billed to them on or before the first day of the month following the date on which Owner delivers the bill to Resident, then Owner may terminate this Lease and pursue the remedies herein described. Any payment which is returned will be treated as if no payment had been made, and in addition, Resident will pay a $25.00 returned payment fee, which sum will be additional Rent under the terms of this Lease. Owner will credit any payment to any charge outstanding on Resident's account at Owner's sole discretion.

6. SECURITY DEPOSIT. Resident understands that they have given a Security Deposit to Owner, which will be kept by Owner as assurance that Resident performs all of their obligations under this Lease. Owner's right to recover possession of the Apartment for non-payment of Rent or for any other reason will not be affected by the fact that Owner holds the Security Deposit. Resident agrees that, except as required by law, Owner shall retain all interest earned, if any, on the Security Deposit as additional Rent, and that Resident shall not be entitled to interest, if any, earned on the Security Deposit. Residents may not elect to use the Security Deposit for Rent. The Security Deposit will be returned to Resident as and when required by statute, less any deductions permitted by law, only after Resident and Other Occupants have vacated the Apartment and returned the Apartment keys to Owner. If there is more than one Resident, Resident agrees that the Security Deposit is jointly held and paid.

NOTICE TO RESIDENT: YOU MUST PROVIDE YOUR OWNER WRITTEN NOTIFICATION OF A FORWARDING ADDRESS WHERE YOU CAN BE REACHED AND WILL RECEIVE MAIL WITHIN FOUR (4) DAYS OF MOVING, OR YOUR OWNER SHALL BE RELIEVED OF SENDING YOU AN ITEMIZED LIST OF DAMAGES AND THE PENALTIES ADHERENT TO THAT FAILURE.

7. CHARACTER OF THE OCCUPANCY. Resident agrees that Resident will occupy the Apartment and that the Apartment is to be used exclusively as a private residence for the Resident and the Other Occupants listed in Paragraph 1, and for no other persons or purposes. Resident agrees not to operate any business from the Apartment, conduct "garage sales," or make any other unusual use of the Apartment which might violate the rights of Owner or other residents of the Apartment Community (as defined herein). Unless otherwise provided, Resident agrees to occupy the Apartment at all times during this Lease and all extensions thereof. Resident understands that Owner may terminate this Lease if Resident fails to comply with the terms of this Paragraph.

8. USE OF THE APARTMENT. Resident understands and agrees that they will not use the Apartment for any purpose in violation of the laws, ordinances, or regulations of any governmental authority or the rules set forth on Exhibit B. Resident agrees to furnish the Apartment and install draperies or other window treatments with white linings or surfaces on the exterior so the Apartment Community will have a uniform and consistent appearance. Resident agrees to keep the Apartment in a clean and orderly condition, and not to do anything that might be considered dangerous, might be a health hazard, or might violate any health or police regulations. Resident agrees that they will not engage in any activity or act which might cause the Apartment to diminish in value, and that they will not misuse or neglect the Apartment or any of Owner's property or appliances in the Apartment. Resident shall ensure that each smoke detector installed in the Apartment remains functional and is not disabled, including testing the same no less than one (1) time every six (6) months to confirm it is in operational condition. If the smoke detector is battery operated, Resident shall replace batteries in the smoke detector as necessary. If the smoke detector is hard wired into the Apartment's electrical system, and Resident believes that the smoke detector is not functional, Resident shall provide notice to Owner. Resident shall ensure that the smart home hub is always plugged in and operational. If the resident believes the smart home hub is not functional, Resident shall provide notice to Owner.

9. RESPONSIBILITY TO COMMUNITY. Resident understands that they are living in a multiple residence apartment community (the "Apartment Community") and that the mutual cooperation between all residents and Owner is essential in order to provide a pleasant environment for everyone within the Apartment Community. Therefore, Resident agrees to act in an orderly fashion and not to do anything which might cause a disturbance, nuisance or an eyesore to the other residents. Tenant, occupant, invitee, or any guest of Tenant or occupant, must treat everyone including management, its agents, contractors, employees of Landlord with respect and free of abusive/threatening behavior. Any form of intimidation, abusive behavior, sexual harassment, racial slurs or other threats of any kind will not be tolerated while residing on or near the property. If the Tenant, occupant, invitee, or guest violates this clause, it is a breach of the lease and depending on the severity of the conduct, the Landlord has the right to immediately terminate the lease.

10. OBLIGATIONS ON MOVING IN. Resident acknowledges and agrees that Owner has made no representations or warranties as to the condition or the state of repairs of the Apartment or the Common Areas prior to the signing of this Lease. On or before the Beginning Date, Owner will furnish two (2) copies of an inventory checklist to Resident, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A (as may be updated from time to time to reflect the contents of the Apartment, the "Inventory Checklist"). Resident must review the Inventory Checklist, and note on the Inventory Checklist the condition of the Apartment and Owner's property in the Apartment. One copy of the Inventory Checklist must then be returned to Owner within seven (7) days of the Beginning Date. FAILURE OF RESIDENT TO COMPLETE THE INVENTORY CHECKLIST WILL BE DEEMED AN AGREEMENT BY RESIDENT THAT THE APARTMENT AND OWNER'S PROPERTY IN THE APARTMENT ARE IN GOOD, CLEAN, UNDAMAGED AND SERVICEABLE CONDITION AS OF THE BEGINNING DATE. If Resident believes that Owner is responsible for repairs in the Apartment, Resident should so indicate on their completed Inventory Checklist. With the exception of the deficiencies noted on Resident's Inventory Checklist, Resident accepts the Apartment, fixtures, appliances, and furniture in their 'AS-IS' condition and acknowledges that, other than the warranties required by statute, Owner makes no express warranties and disclaims any and all implied warranties with regard to the Apartment and its fixtures, appliances, and furniture.

11. PET POLICY. If Resident desires to keep a cat or dog in the Apartment for any length of time, they must sign a Pet Addendum in the form attached hereto (if applicable) and pay a Non-Refundable Pet Fee as set forth in the Pet Addendum. Resident's Total Monthly Rent will also increase by the pet premium then in effect for the Apartment Community. Resident understands and agrees that the additional pet fee and monthly pet premium in no way limits Resident's liability for damages to the Apartment. The Pet Addendum will be kept on file by Owner's onsite agent for the Apartment Community (the "Property Manager"). If Owner learns that any unregistered animal has been kept in the Apartment for any length of time, then Resident understands and agrees that Owner will be entitled to collect a Non-Refundable Pet Fee as is then in effect for the Apartment Community, plus an unauthorized pet fine in the amount of $200, plus additional monthly Rent equal to the pet premium then in effect for the Apartment Community. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Owner will authorize guide, leader or service dogs or support animals as required by federal law and the law of the state where the Apartment Community is located, provided that Owner shall have absolute and sole discretion in all cases to refuse authorization for any animals that are not compatible with the policies of the Apartment Community. Resident must not feed stray or wild animals. If Resident or any Other Occupant violates animal restrictions (with or without Resident's knowledge), then Resident shall be subject to charges, damages, eviction, and other remedies provided in the Lease. If an animal has been in the Apartment at any time during the Lease Term (with or without Owner's consent), Owner shall charge Resident for any defleaing, deodorizing or shampooing that Owner reasonably deems necessary.

Any and all unauthorized pet fines, pet premiums and other animal-violation charges and/or animal-removal charges are liquidated damages for time, inconvenience, and overhead of the Owner (except for attorney's fees and litigation costs) in enforcing animal restrictions and rules. Owner may enter the Apartment to remove an unauthorized, abandoned or nuisance animal by following the procedures of Paragraph 20. Owner may keep or kennel the animal or turn it over to a humane society or other local authority. When keeping or kenneling an animal, Owner will not be liable for loss, harm, sickness or death of the animal unless by the negligence of the Owner. Owner will return the animal to Resident upon request unless it has already been turned over to a humane society or local authority. Resident must pay for the animal's reasonable care and kenneling charges.

12. ALTERATIONS. Resident may not make any alteration, addition, or improvement to the Apartment without prior written consent of Owner. All permitted alterations, additions, and improvements must be done in a good workmanlike manner using high quality materials, and done in such a fashion as to not disturb other residents. Resident will not allow or permit any mechanic's lien or other lien to be filed against the Apartment or any part of the Apartment Community as a result of any of Resident's repairs, alterations or improvements. Resident understands and agrees that Resident is obligated to remove all alterations, additions, and improvements made by them and to restore the Apartment to the condition it was in on the Beginning Date, reasonable wear and tear excepted, whether or not the Owner has consented to the alterations. Any alterations, additions, or improvements not so removed and restored will be considered damages and the cost of removal or restoration will be charged to Resident and deducted from the Security Deposit. In order to protect the privacy rights of other tenants, Owner does not permit the addition of recording devices to the door or peephole of any unit where there is potential to record into another resident's apartment, or where the privacy rights of another may be infringed upon. Recording devices may be used within the tenant's individual unit so long as it does not infringe upon another's right to privacy.

13. COMMON AREAS. The Apartment Community has been designed as a residential community, and it may contain certain common areas for the mutual use, convenience, and benefit of all residents in the community, such as parking lots, hallways, swimming pools, recreation areas, decks, lounge areas, community centers, laundry facilities, tennis courts or other athletic facilities (collectively, any such elements are "Common Areas"). Resident agrees to use these Common Areas only for the uses for which they were intended, to obey all Rules relating to the Common Areas, and to act with due respect for the rights of others who use and enjoy the Common Areas. Resident understands that Owner is under no obligation to provide any of the Common Areas described above, and that Owner may construct new Common Areas or close existing Common Areas at Owner's sole discretion. Resident understands and agrees that Resident uses the Common Areas at their own risk, and that Owner is not responsible or liable for any loss or injury to any person because of any use of the Common Areas except for losses or injuries resulting from Owner's negligent performance or failure to perform a duty imposed by law.

14. STORAGE. Resident may only store their personal belongings, possessions, and furniture in their Apartment or in any storage area designated for Resident's use by Owner. Resident understands and agrees that this Lease does not give Resident the right to use any part of the Apartment Community's buildings or grounds to make any attachment, or to erect any antenna, satellite dish, or for any other purpose except as provided for by applicable law. In no event may Resident store any explosives, flammable substances, or other dangerous items anywhere in the Apartment Community. If a storage area outside of the Apartment is designated for Resident's use, Resident will purchase and install a sturdy lock on the door, and will periodically examine the stored items. In no event may Resident store any personal possessions, bicycles, belongings or furniture on the patio or balcony of the Apartment, if any, or in the hallways or other Common Areas. Further, Resident agrees that they will not store any perishable items, or any items which would cause odors, in any storage area. Resident understands and agrees that any use of the designated storage areas is at their own risk, that they should not store any valuables in the storage areas, and that Owner will not be responsible for, and has not provided Resident any assurances against, theft or damage to Resident's property.

15. PARKING. Resident agrees that they will only park Resident's Automobiles in their assigned carports or garage spaces, if any, or in the other parking areas specifically designated by Owner. In no event will Resident park in any designated fire lane, garbage removal area, street or in any other area not generally available for parking. Resident agrees that they will use the parking areas solely for the purpose of parking Resident's Automobiles. Automobiles not used on a regular basis, campers, snowmobiles, commercial vehicles and recreational vehicles may not be stored or brought into the Apartment Community. Prohibited or improperly-parked vehicles (including Resident's Automobiles) may be towed by Owner, at any time, with no prior notice, at Resident's expense. Vehicles which do not appear to have been moved within any 72-hour period may be towed away by Owner, at Resident's expense, after notifying Resident of Owner's intent to do so by placing a sticker on the vehicle. Resident should notify the Property Manager in writing if they intend to leave any Automobile in the parking lots or garage spaces for any extended period of time, so that such Automobile will not be towed.

16. RULES AND REGULATIONS. Owner reserves the right to establish reasonable rules and regulations relating to the use of the Common Areas in the Apartment Community, and to establish other reasonable rules and regulations as necessary for the general welfare, health and comfort of all residents, and for the protection of the buildings and property in the Apartment Community (as may be updated from time to time, the "Rules"). The Rules in effect at the Apartment Community as of the Beginning Date are attached hereto as Exhibit B. Resident promises and agrees to obey the Rules that are in effect. Owner reserves the right to change the Rules from time to time as Owner finds necessary. Changes in the Rules will take effect one (1) month after written notice to the Resident. The Rules and Regulations are a part of this Lease and any breach of the Rules and Regulations will be a breach of this Lease.

17. ASSIGNMENT. Resident expressly understands and agrees that they will not assign any part of their interest in this Lease, nor will they sublet the Apartment nor allow anyone other than themselves and the Other Occupants of the Apartment to occupy the Apartment. Any assignment or subletting of the Lease or the Apartment by Resident or an Other Occupant will be void and completely ineffective, and furthermore will constitute a default by Resident under the Lease allowing Owner to immediately commence proceedings to take possession of the Apartment.

18. UTILITIES. Resident promises and agrees to promptly transfer all utilities indicated as being paid for by Resident in Paragraph 1(g) into Resident's name, using the utility company or companies selected by Owner, and to maintain those utilities in their name throughout their residency. Resident promises and agrees to pay all bills for those utilities during the Term of the Lease. Owner has the right to temporarily discontinue or cut-off any utilities for repairs deemed necessary by Owner without responsibility or liability to Resident. Owner is not responsible or liable to Resident for any loss or damage resulting from interruption in any utility service caused by any strike, fire, storm or other casualty, or for any other reason.

Resident's obligation to pay Rent will continue despite any interruption in utility services, unless the interruption is caused by Owner's negligent performance, or failure to perform a duty imposed by law and Owner is unable to restore service within a reasonable period of time. Resident understands and agrees that a portion of the heat and air conditioning supplied to the Apartment may be diverted to heat the hallways and other Common Areas in the building in which the Apartment is located. Resident may not interrupt, reduce, shut off, or cause termination of: (1) electricity; (2) gas; (3) water; or (4) other essential services to the Apartment.

19. OWNER'S DUTY TO REPAIR. Owner agrees to keep the Apartment in reasonable repair during the term of this Lease, provided that Resident promptly notifies Owner of any condition in the Apartment which is in need of repair. If any repairs are made necessary or become more costly because of the acts, misuse or neglect of Resident or because of the failure of Resident to notify Owner of any condition in need of repair, then Resident agrees to pay Owner for the cost of making the repairs as additional Rent. Whenever repairs to be made by Owner shall be delayed because of factors beyond Owner's control, the obligation of Resident hereunder shall not be affected whatsoever thereby, nor shall any claim accrue to Resident against Owner, or its assigns, by reason thereof.

20. ACCESS TO THE APARTMENT. Resident expressly agrees that, subject to applicable laws, Owner, Owner's agents, employees and contractors designated by Owner have the right to enter the Apartment at reasonable times to inspect the Apartment, show it to prospective purchasers or lenders, or to perform maintenance, repairs or to make alterations to the Apartment or the building in which the Apartment is located. Owner's right to entry is contingent upon the existence of one of the following: i) at any time with the consent of Resident; ii) on 24 hours' written notice to Resident; iii) without notice, to respond to an emergency situation affecting the Apartment or the Apartment Community that could reasonably be expected to cause serious damage to property or injury to persons if not remedied immediately; and (iv) pursuant to a court order if Resident has abandoned or surrendered the Apartment. After either Owner or Resident gives notice that this Lease will terminate, the Owner may show the Apartment to prospective residents' at all reasonable hours without advance notice.

21. BEDBUGS. Resident must promptly notify Owner of any known or suspected bedbug presence in the Apartment. Resident must allow Owner and Owner's pest control agents to enter the Apartment at reasonable times to inspect for the presence of bedbugs. If Owner confirms the presence of bedbugs, Resident shall cooperate and coordinate with Owner and Owner's pest control agents to treat and eliminate the bedbugs. Resident shall not treat for bedbugs. If Owner determines that Resident is the source of the bedbugs, Owner will require Resident to pay all costs of cleaning and pest control treatments incurred by Owner to treat the Apartment for bedbugs as well as any costs to inspect, clean and/or treat other involved apartment units or areas where bedbugs have spread. Resident shall pay any such inspection, cleaning and treatment charges no later than the first day of the month following the date on which Owner delivers the bill to Resident.

22. CONSTRUCTION ACTIVITIES. Owner reserves the right to make modifications to the Apartment and the Apartment Community. Resident understands that additional buildings and/or other facilities or improvements may be constructed, other apartment units may be rehabilitated, and that Owner may develop additional property and add to the size of the Apartment Community during Resident's occupancy of Apartment. Therefore, Resident understands that inconveniences, such as incomplete or temporary facilities, dirt, dust, mud, noise and debris may occur during construction and Resident will accept these conditions without complaint and will not be entitled to any reduction of Rent because of any such conditions.

23. RIGHT TO MORTGAGE. Resident understands and agrees that this Lease is and will be subject and subordinate to all present and future mortgages affecting the Apartment Community, and that all Rent and this Lease may have been or may be assigned by Owner to its mortgage lender as security for the repayment of any mortgages affecting the Apartment Community.

24. TRANSFER OF SECURITY DEPOSIT. If Owner sells, assigns, or conveys its interest in the Lease, the Apartment Community or the building in which the Apartment is located, Owner also will have the right to transfer the Security Deposit. Upon the transfer by Owner to a transferee of the Security Deposit, the assumption by the transferee of all of Owner's obligations with respect to the Security Deposit and receipt by Resident of a written notice from said transferee that transferee has assumed Owner's obligations under this Lease, Owner will be relieved of all liability to Resident with respect to the Security Deposit and the transferee will be deemed to have assumed Owner's liability. Resident agrees that Owner's mortgagee will not be responsible or liable for any Security Deposit unless the mortgagee actually receives the Security Deposit.

25. LIABILITY OF RESIDENT. Resident understands and agrees that they have been entrusted with valuable property and appliances in the Apartment. Resident agrees that they will treat Owner's property within the Apartment and the Apartment Community with all due respect and care, including keeping all such property in a clean, neat and orderly condition and promptly notifying Owner of any necessary maintenance or repair to all such property. Resident agrees to be liable to Owner for any damage, loss or injury suffered by Owner which is caused directly or indirectly by Resident's failure to comply with its obligations in this Section, or the negligence of Resident, including any loss due to fire and any liability of Owner to any other person arising out of Resident's acts. The costs of such damage will be deemed to be additional Rent under the terms of this Lease.

26. NOTICE OF INJURIES. In the event that Resident suffers any damage or injury for which they believe Owner is liable, Resident promises and agrees to notify Owner, in writing, within five (5) days of occurrence of the injury, or as soon after the injury as practicable. The failure of Resident to notify Owner of any injury or damage will be a breach of this Lease, and Resident will be responsible to Owner for any loss which Owner might suffer arising out of Resident's failure to notify Owner, including Owner's inability to determine the cause or responsibility for the injury or damage.

27. CONTENTS INSURANCE. Resident is solely responsible for insuring the contents of the Apartment including appliances furnished by Owner. Owner has no responsibility whatsoever for the loss or destruction of Resident's property, unless loss is caused by Owner's willfully or grossly negligent act and is not otherwise covered by Resident's insurance. Resident agrees that any damage to the contents which are, or should be insured by Resident under this paragraph are Resident's responsibility.

28. SECURITY. Owner, its agents and employees do not make any warranties, guaranties or representations regarding the security of the Apartment, the Common Areas, or the Apartment Community. Any such warranties or representations, whether express or implied, are hereby disclaimed. Resident understands and agrees that Resident and occupants are exclusively responsible for protecting themselves, the Premises and guests from crime, fire and any other danger. Resident releases Owner and its agents and employees from any or all liability for the criminal or intentional acts of others and agrees that Owner has made no representations regarding the safety of the Apartment, Common Areas or the Apartment Community.

29. LIABILITY OF OWNER. Except for Owner's failure to perform, or its negligent performance of a duty imposed by law, Owner will not be responsible or liable to Resident, Occupants or to any guests or visitors of Resident for any personal injury, loss or damage to property whatsoever that may result from the acts or omissions of Owner, other residents, guests, visitors or trespassers in the Apartment Community, or for any acts of God or for any other acts, causes or reasons not reasonably within the control of Owner.

30. CONDEMNATION AND DESTRUCTION. If any part of the Apartment (other than the carport or garage) is taken by any governmental authority, or if the Apartment is damaged by fire, storm or other casualty, and if Resident is unable to continue living in the Apartment, then Owner may, for the remainder of the Term and for equivalent rent and other relevant terms of this Lease, relocate Resident to a different apartment in the Apartment Community that is at least equivalent to the Apartment in size and condition, in which case this Lease shall apply for the remainder of the term, or if no equivalent other apartment is available, Owner or Resident may declare this Lease to be terminated, in which case Resident shall immediately move out of the Apartment. If the damage can be repaired by the Owner within a reasonable time, and if Resident can still use the Apartment without substantial inconvenience, Owner shall repair the Apartment as soon as is practicable, and this Lease shall continue in full force and effect. Any taking of or damage to any of the parking areas or other Common Areas will not release Resident from their obligations under this Lease. All damages or insurance proceeds for any casualty or governmental taking will belong solely to Owner.

31. DEFAULT IN PAYMENT OF RENT OR OTHER CHARGES. Resident expressly understands and agrees that a failure to promptly pay the full amount of the Monthly Rent or any additional Rent imposed by this Lease is a default in Resident's obligations. In such event, Owner will have the right to enter the Apartment, evict Resident and/or recover possession of the Apartment by all means allowed by law, and the right to relet the Apartment. Acceptance of late payments by Owner will not impair any of Owner's remedies set forth in this Lease or as allowed by law.

32. OTHER DEFAULT. If Resident fails to faithfully and completely perform any of their promises or obligations under this Lease (other than the obligation to pay Rent and other charges), Owner will have the right to declare this Lease terminated, and upon giving one (1) month prior written notice, Owner will have the right to evict Resident and to recover possession of the Apartment by whatever means allowed by law. Owner will have the right to immediately exercise all remedies provided by this Paragraph if Resident has made two or more late Rent or additional Rent payments in any one year period. In the event that Resident (a) willfully or negligently causes a serious and continuing health hazard; (b) causes extensive and continuing physical injury to the premises; (c) has unlawfully possessed, manufactured, delivered, or possessed with intent to deliver, a controlled substance on the premises; or (d) engages in any other criminal activity on the premises, Owner has the right to declare this Lease immediately terminated and, after providing such notice as required by law, evict Resident and recover possession by whatever means allowed by law. In any action or proceeding instituted as a result of Resident's breach of this Lease, including Resident's failure to pay the entire amount of Rent when due, Owner will have the right, in addition to any other rights provided by the law or by this Lease, to recover from Resident all court costs and attorney's fees allowed by law and Resident agrees that said sums are additional Rent under the terms of this Lease.

33. OWNER TERMINATION RIGHTS. If Owner terminates this Lease due to Resident's default under the Lease, Resident's abandonment of the Apartment, or Owner's re-entry and recovery of the Apartment, Resident's Rent liability will survive, as allowed by law. In any of these events, Owner may declare all Rent and other charges remaining to be paid during the term of the Lease, due and payable in full or Owner may seek to collect the Rent and other charges as they fall due, despite the re-entry or recovery of the Apartment by Owner. Owner's claims for any losses or damages will survive the termination of the Lease or the recovery of the Apartment by Owner, and Resident will remain liable for all such losses and damages. If Owner accelerates the remaining Rent and other charges to be paid during the term of the Lease, Resident may not be liable for the total accelerated amount since Owner will attempt to minimize damages and either party may have a court determine the actual amount of damages owed, if any. If Owner chooses to collect the Rent and other charges as they fall due, Owner will seek new residents for the Apartment and will credit to Resident's account any income resulting from re-leasing the Apartment, however, Resident will not be entitled to any excess income received by Owner over amounts owing from Resident to Owner. In any of these events, Owner will also be entitled to a termination fee (if allowed by law) to be deemed additional Rent for premature termination of the Lease by Resident, to recapture any rent concessions, abatements or discounts received by Resident, and to recover all costs, expenses and attorney's fees allowable by law which may be incurred in any action or proceeding against Resident, which sums will be considered additional Rent hereunder.

34. ADDITIONAL RESIDENT RIGHTS.

- a. MCL 554.601a. If Resident has occupied the Apartment for more than thirteen (13) months, they may terminate the Lease by providing a sixty (60) day written notice to Owner if one of the following occurs: (a) Resident becomes eligible during the Lease term to take possession of a subsidized unit in senior citizen housing and provides Owner with written proof of that eligibility; or (b) Resident becomes incapable during the Lease term of living independently, as certified by a physician in a notarized statement.
- b. MCL 554.601b. If Resident has a reasonable apprehension of present danger to him or her or his or her child from domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking, Resident may have statutory rights to seek a release of rental obligation under MCL 554.601b.
- c. Military termination. Resident may terminate the Lease by giving written notice to Owner if Resident enlists or is drafted or commissioned and on active duty in the U.S. Armed Forces. Resident may also terminate the Lease by giving written notice to Owner if: (1) Resident is a member of the U.S. Armed Forces or Reserves on active duty or (2) a member of the National Guard called to active duty for more than thirty (30) days in response to a national emergency declared by the President of the United States, and Resident (i) receives orders for permanent change-of-station, (ii) receives orders to deploy with a military unit or in support of a military operation for 90 days or more, or (iii) is relieved or released from active duty. After Resident delivers a written termination notice, the Lease will be terminated under this Paragraph 30 days after the date on which the next rental payment is due. Resident must furnish Owner a copy of the military orders, such as permanent change-of-station orders, call-up orders, or deployment orders or written notification from a commanding officer. Military permission for base housing does not constitute change-of-station order.

For the purposes of this Lease, orders described in (2) above will only release the Resident who qualifies under (1) and (2) above and receives the orders during the Lease term and such resident's spouse or legal dependents living in the resident's household. A co-resident who is not Resident's spouse or dependent cannot terminate under this Paragraph. Resident represents when signing this Lease that: (1) Resident does not already have deployment or change-of-station orders; (2) Resident will not be retiring from the military during the Term; and (3) the term of enlistment or obligation will not end before the Lease Term ends. Even if Resident is entitled to terminate this Lease under this Paragraph, liquidated damages for making a false representation of the above will be the amount of unpaid Rent for the remainder of the Term when and if Resident moves out, less rents from others received in mitigation of Owner's damages and re-letting costs and expenses. Resident must immediately notify Owner if Resident is called to active duty or receives deployment or permanent change-of-station orders.

35. RESIDENT'S DUTY ON MOVING OUT. Upon moving out, Resident will clean the walls, floors and appliances, remove all their possessions and return the Apartment to the Owner in as good a condition as when Resident moved in, ordinary wear and tear expected in the normal course of habitation of a dwelling unit excepted. If Resident has made any alterations or additions to the Apartment, Resident will remove the alterations and restore the Apartment. Resident may schedule a walk-through inspection of the Apartment with Owner or the Property Manager prior to move-out. Owner will complete two copies of the Inventory Checklist as of the move-out date and deliver one copy to Resident. Resident will return all of their keys and any ID, parking stickers, or gate passes to the Owner on the day that they move out of the Apartment. Owner may charge Resident up to $50.00 for each such item that Resident fails to return.

36. ABANDONMENT. Abandonment of the Apartment shall constitute a default under this Lease. Owner, in its sole discretion and in accordance with applicable law, shall have the right to determine when the Apartment is abandoned. Resident agrees abandonment of the Apartment shall include, but is not limited to, any one of the following: the removal of personal property other than in the usual course of continuing occupancy; early move-out under any circumstance; the failure to pay Rent or other charges; discontinuance of any utility service; and failure to respond to any notices, phone calls, or correspondence from Owner. If Resident leaves any property or possessions in the Apartment Community after abandoning or moving out of the Apartment, the property will be deemed abandoned. Owner may (i) send the abandoned property to a storage company and charge Resident for the storage costs; (ii) store the abandoned property and charge a reasonable storage fee to Resident; or (iii) sell or dispose of the abandoned property in any manner and at any time not prohibited by law.

37. HOLDING OVER. If Resident fails to move out of the Apartment on the date specified in their notice to vacate, or fails to move after Owner has given Resident notice of Lease termination, then Resident shall be held responsible for all damages suffered by Owner, including but not limited to loss of rent, relocation costs, damage awards, court costs, and attorney's fees. In addition to any such damages, Owner may at its option increase Resident's Rent to 150% of the amount specified in Paragraph 1.

38. INFORMATION DISCLOSURES. Resident understands that various credit institutions, mortgage lenders, governmental agencies, landlords and other persons may contact Owner from time to time to request information regarding this Lease transaction. Resident agrees that Owner may disclose any information contained in Owner's files and records, without any liability to Resident.

39. NOTICES. Unless this Lease or any statute calls for a specific method for notices to be delivered, any notice required to be given by this Lease will be considered to be properly delivered if it is sent by first class mail or personally delivered to the party being notified. Notices to Owner will be sent or delivered to the address shown on the first page of this Lease, unless Resident is notified of a different address. Notices to Resident will be sent or delivered to the Apartment unless Owner is notified of a different address. In addition, Owner may deliver any notice to Resident by attaching the notice to any door or door frame of the Apartment unless Resident has moved out of the Apartment and notified Owner of their new address. If Resident provided an email address or cell phone number on the first page of this Lease, any notices to Resident (including notices of demand for payment of Rent and notices of demand for possession of the Apartment) may be delivered to Resident by electronic service in accordance with MCL 600.5718. Owner may contact Resident and deliver official notices via text message or email at the cell phone number or email address provided by Resident on the first page of this Lease (or at any other cell phone number, email address or other electronic messaging address which Resident provides to Owner in writing). Notices sent by electronic service will include a copy of the notice document as an attachment, a hyperlink at which the notice document can be viewed and downloaded, or both.

40. LEASE APPLICATION. Prior to the signing of this Lease by Resident and Owner, Resident signed a Lease Application, in which Resident made several representations to Owner. Resident understands that Owner has relied on those representations, and that if any representations are discovered to be false or incorrect, Owner has the option to declare Resident in breach of this Lease. Owner is an equal opportunity housing provider and complies with all federal, state and local fair housing laws and regulations. Until Owner has executed this Lease, Owner shall have the right to refuse to lease an Apartment to Resident for any reason whatsoever; provided, however, such refusal shall not be made in violation of any federal, state or local fair housing laws. In the event of a refused application, Resident shall be refunded, if applicable, any prepaid Rent.

41. LEASE GUARANTY. At Owner's sole discretion, Owner may require guarantor(s) of Resident to execute and deliver a Guarantor Joinder Agreement, in a form substantially similar to Exhibit C attached hereto, as a condition of accepting Resident's lease application. At Owner's option, the Lease shall be null and void if either (i) the Guarantor Joinder Agreement is not executed, notarized and delivered by the guarantor(s) of Resident named therein and returned to Owner on or prior to the date of Resident's execution of the Lease or (ii) the Guarantor has a credit rating that is not acceptable to Owner. The Guaranty shall be an additional assurance to Owner of the performance of the covenants of the Lease and not in substitution of Resident's responsibilities and obligations hereunder. Resident agrees to be fully bound by all the terms and conditions hereof and irrespective of the execution of a guaranty. THE GUARANTY SHALL BE VALID FOR THE ENTIRE LEASE TERM AS WELL AS SUBSEQUENT TERMS OR RENEWALS WITHOUT THE NECESSITY TO HAVE GUARANTOR EXECUTE A REAFFIRMATION OF SUCH GUARANTY.

42. MODIFICATION. Both Owner and Resident understand that the whole agreement between them is expressed in this Lease and any addendums attached hereto, and that there are no outside verbal understandings or agreements between them regarding the subject matter of this Lease. This Lease shall be binding upon, and shall inure to the benefit of Resident and Owner and their permitted successors, assigns and personal representatives. Except where this Lease says that a change may be made, this Lease may be changed only by a written agreement signed by both Resident and Owner, and any verbal understandings or agreements will not be binding on either Party. However, if a change to this Lease is required by federal, state or local law or regulation, Owner may change this Lease without the consent of Resident by giving a written notice of the adjustment to Resident one (1) month or more before the change takes effect. Notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing to the contrary, Owner may from time to time change its internal policies such as the Owner's policy pertaining to the method and location for payment of Rent upon providing one (1) month prior written notice to Resident, and such change in policy shall not constitute a change to this Lease requiring a written agreement signed by both Resident and Owner.

No Property Manager has the authority to alter the terms of this Lease including, but not limited to, changing the amount of the Rent, granting rent-free periods, shortening or lengthening the term of the Lease, or making decisions on the use of the Security Deposit.

43. JOINT AND SEVERAL LIABILITY. Each Resident, if there is more than one, shall be jointly and severally liable for all Rents and other sums due, and the Owner may look to all or any one of the Residents for the full satisfaction of any obligation under this Lease, and a judgment against any Resident shall not be a bar to a judgment against any other Resident.

44. WAIVER. Owner's failure to enforce a provision of this Lease on one (1) or more occasions is not a continuing waiver of Owner's right to enforce the provision, and its consent to an act of Residents on one (1) or more occasions (where consent is required) is not a continuing consent to any subsequent similar acts by Residents. No default or breach is waived by Owner unless the waiver is provided in writing.

45. SEVERABILITY AND CAPTIONS. If any provision contained in this Lease is prohibited by statute or is declared unenforceable as a result of any judicial decision, then that provision will be null and void, and will not be considered a part of this Lease without affecting the remaining provisions, which shall remain in full force and effect. The captions and numbers have been inserted only as a matter of convenience, and are not part of this Lease.

46. INTERPRETATION. It is the intention of Owner that this Lease be written in a readable form without the use of technical language, except where it was unavoidable. Resident is, however, encouraged to assure themselves that they understand everything in this Lease, and to seek assistance if they do not.

47. GOVERNING LAW AND VENUE. This Lease is entered into in the State of Michigan, and the rights and obligations of Owner and Resident hereunder are subject to all applicable local, state and Federal laws, statutes, regulations and ordinances, as amended and in effect from time to time, and any references to "law", "applicable law" or "statute" in this Lease shall be subject to this Paragraph. If any provision of this Lease is held to be invalid or unenforceable under applicable law, then such provision shall be deemed to be amended so as to be in conformity with applicable law, and the validity and enforceability of the remaining provisions of this Lease shall not be affected thereby. In the event that subsequent to the execution of this Lease any state statute regulating or affecting any duty or obligation imposed upon Owner is enacted, amended, or repealed, Owner may, at its option, elect to perform in accordance with such statute, amendment, or act of repeal in lieu of complying with the analogous provision of this Lease or of the statutes in effect when this Lease was executed. Venue for any action arising out of this Lease shall be brought solely and exclusively in a court of competent jurisdiction in the county in which the Apartment Community is located.

48. LEASE VIOLATION FEE. Without limiting any rights or remedies available to Owner under this Lease or applicable law, Owner shall be permitted to charge Resident a Lease violation fee of up to $50.00 (the "Lease Violation Fee") for any violation by Resident of the terms of this Lease or the Rules and Regulations of the Apartment Community in effect from time to time. The Lease Violation Fee shall be deemed additional Rent under this Lease and shall be due and payable by Resident to Owner on the first day of the month following Owner's delivery of a Notice of Lease Violation to Resident that assesses a Lease Violation Fee.

49. EARLY TERMINATION. Provided there is no event of default by Resident under this Lease either at the time of exercise or on the date of early termination, Resident shall have the right to terminate this Lease prior to the Ending Date subject to the satisfaction of the following conditions: (a) Resident shall provide written notice to Owner of its intent to exercise the early termination right not less than sixty (60) days prior to the desired early termination date; and (b) at the time of providing such notice, Resident shall pay to Owner an early termination fee (the "Early Termination Fee") equal to the sum of: (i) all unpaid Rent then outstanding under this Lease; plus (ii) an amount equal to two hundred percent (200%) of the current Monthly Rent. Upon satisfaction of the foregoing conditions, the date for early termination as set forth in Resident's Termination Notice shall be deemed the Ending Date as set forth herein.

51. ANCILLARY AGREEMENTS. Owner and Resident have entered into certain separate agreements relating to Resident's use of certain services, amenities, property or equipment of the Apartment Community, which are listed below. All such agreements and the rights and obligations of Owner and Resident thereunder are distinct, separate and independent of this Lease and no exercise or failure to exercise any such rights or obligations under such other agreements by Owner or Resident shall preclude, limit or otherwise impair the right of Owner or Resident to the exercise their respective rights under this Lease.

ADDENDUM TO LEASE - MOLD POLICY

Addendum to a Lease dated 12/02/2025 in which Edward Rose Village Apartments, L.L.C. doing business as The Village Apartments appears as “Owner” and Osman Yildiz appear(s) as “Resident(s)” for an Apartment/Townhome numbered as 19212.

To minimize the occurrence and growth of mold in the Apartment, the Resident hereby agrees to the following:

Resident(s) shall remove any visible moisture accumulation in or on the Apartment, including on walls, windows, floors, ceilings, and bathroom fixtures; mop up spills and thoroughly dry affected area as soon as possible after occurrence.

Resident(s) must keep climate and moisture in Apartment at reasonable levels. In addition, use exhaust fan in kitchen and bathroom when necessary. Use of exhaust fan, if available, in bathroom for at least thirty (30) minutes after bathing or showering is suggested.

Resident(s) shall make every effort to clean and dust the Apartment regularly, in particular the kitchen and bathroom because these are breeding grounds for mold.

Resident(s) shall promptly notify Owner in writing of the presence of the following conditions:

- i. A water leak, excessive moisture, or standing water inside the Apartment or standing water in any community common area;
- ii. Mold growth in or on the Apartment;
- iii. A malfunction in any part of the heating, air-conditioning, or ventilation system in the Apartment.

Violation of this Addendum shall be deemed a material violation under the terms of the Lease, and Owner shall be entitled to exercise all rights and remedies it possesses against Resident(s) at law or in equity.

Resident(s) shall be liable to Owner for damages sustained to the Apartment or to Resident's person or property as a result of Resident's failure to comply with the terms of this Addendum. Owner shall have no liability arising out of the presence of mold in the Apartment unless Owner fails, upon written notice, to take remedial action.

In case of a conflict between the provisions of this Addendum and any other provisions of the Lease, the provisions of the Addendum shall govern.

ABOUT MOLD

Mold is found both indoors and outdoors and in both new and old structures. Molds are naturally occurring microscopic organisms which reproduce by spores. Mold breaks down organic matter in the environment and uses the end product for its food. Mold spores (like plant pollen) spread through the air and are commonly transported by shoes, clothing and other materials. When excess moisture is present inside a dwelling, mold can grow. There is conflicting scientific evidence as to what constitutes a sufficient accumulation of mold which could lead to adverse health effects. Nonetheless, one should take appropriate precautions at home.

Cleanliness, particularly in the kitchen and bathroom, discourages mold. Regular vacuuming, mopping and cleaning of hard surfaces help remove the household dirt and debris that harbor mold. Moldy food must be thrown away.

Visible moisture on windows, walls, ceilings, floors and other surfaces should be eliminated. Repair leaks in washing machine hoses and discharge lines. When showering, don't let water escape. After a shower or bath, (1) wipe moisture off of shower walls, shower doors, the bathtub and the bathroom floor; (2) leave the bathroom door open until all moisture on the mirrors and bathroom walls and tile surface has dissipated; and (3) hang up towels and bath mats so they will completely dry out. Turn on any exhaust fans in the bathroom and kitchen before showering or cooking with open pots.

Periodically open windows and doors on days when the outdoor weather is dry (i.e.: humidity is below 50 percent) to help humid areas of the Apartment dry out.

Promptly follow up on any signs of water leaks, water infiltration or mold.

Prevent excessive moisture buildup in the Apartment. Leaks and moisture that accumulate on dwelling surfaces or that get inside walls or ceilings can encourage mold growth. Prolonged moisture can result from a wide variety of sources.

If small areas of mold have already occurred on non-porous surfaces (such as ceramic tile, formica, vinyl flooring, metal, wood or plastic) the Environmental Protection Agency recommends cleaning the areas with soap/detergent and water, letting the surface dry, and applying a pre-mixed, spray-on-type household disinfectant or mildew remover.

Always clean and apply a disinfectant to an area 5 or 6 times larger than any visible mold because mold may be adjacent in quantities not yet visible to the naked eye. A vacuum cleaner with high-efficiency particulate air (HEPA) filter can be used to help remove mold from sofas, chairs, drapes and carpets.

ADDENDUM TO LEASE - SECURITY NOTICE

Addendum to a Lease dated 12/02/2025 in which Edward Rose Village Apartments, L.L.C. doing business as The Village Apartments appears as “Owner” and Osman Yildiz appear(s) as “Resident(s)” for an Apartment/Townhome numbered as 19212.

NOTICE TO RESIDENT(S): The Owner of this apartment community (including the Owner's employees) do not promise, warrant, or guarantee the safety or security of the Resident(s) or Resident's personal property against the criminal actions of other Residents or third party. Each Resident has the responsibility to protect himself or herself and to maintain appropriate insurance to protect his or her belongings. Residents should contact an insurance agent to arrange appropriate fire and theft insurance on their property. It is a fact that no security system, courtesy patrol or electronic security device can guarantee protection against crime. Even elaborate security systems are subject to mechanical malfunction, tampering, human error or personnel absenteeism, and can be defeated or avoided by clever criminals. Therefore, Residents should always proceed on the assumption that no security systems exist. The best safety measures are those precautions that can be performed as a matter of common sense and habit.

If security systems, security devices, or walk-through/drive-through services are employed at this community, no representation is being made that they will be effective to prevent injury, theft or vandalism. Such personnel, if provided, cannot physically be every place at every moment. Usually, such personnel are unarmed independent contractors and have no greater authority under the law to restrain or arrest criminals than the ordinary citizen. Therefore, the Owner does not warrant that any security systems, security devices, or services employed at this community will discourage or prevent breaches of security, intrusions, thefts, or incidents of violent crime. Further, the Owner reserves the right to reduce, modify or eliminate any security system, security devices or services (other than those statutorily required) at any time; and Resident(s) agree(s) that such action shall not be a breach of any obligation or warranty on the part of the Owner.

If controlled access gates or intrusion alarms are provided, upon request Resident(s) will be furnished written operating instructions; and it is Resident's responsibility to read them and to bring any questions to the attention of the Owner. Further, Resident(s) agree(s) to promptly notify the Owner in writing of any problem, defect, malfunction or failure of door locks, window latches, controlled access gates, home alarm system, and any other security-related device. If Resident's apartment is equipped with a home alarm system, Resident(s) agree(s) to be responsible for all fines, penalties and other charges resulting from or attributable to the alarm, including false alarm charges.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT BY RESIDENT(S): I/We have read, understood and agree with the above notice. I/We have received no representations or warranties, either express or implied, as to any security or any security system on the property. The Owner has not in any way stated or implied to me/us that security of person(s) or property was provided, promised, or guaranteed or that the apartment community was or will be free from crime. I/We further acknowledge that the Owner is not obligated under any circumstances to respond to any signal from an intrusion alarm, system. The responsibility for protecting me/us, my/our property, and my/our family, guests and invitees from acts of crime is the sole responsibility of myself and law enforcement agencies.

I agree to release and hold harmless the Owner from claims arising out of criminal acts of other Residents and third parties. I agree that the Owner shall not be liable to me based upon any claim that security was not provided. Resident(s) acknowledge(s) that the foregoing shall also be binding upon Resident's heirs, successors and assigns.

This document contains the entire agreement with respect to its subject matter. The Owner's representatives have no authority to make changes or modifications in the terms of this document, except when in writing and signed.

ADDENDUM TO LEASE PERSONAL LIABILITY INSURANCE REQUIRED

Addendum to a Lease dated 12/02/2025 in which Edward Rose Village Apartments, L.L.C. doing business as The Village Apartments appears as “Owner” and Osman Yildiz appear(s) as “Resident(s)” for an Apartment/Townhome numbered as 19212.

- 1. Insurance Acknowledgment. You acknowledge that we do not maintain insurance to protect you against personal injury, loss or damage to your personal property or to cover your own liability for injury, loss or damage you (or your occupants or guests) may cause others. You also acknowledge that you may be responsible to others (including us) for the full cost of any injury, loss or damage caused by your negligent actions or the negligent actions of your occupants or guests, including but not limited to damage caused by fire or smoke.
- 2. Required Renters Insurance Policy. You are required, throughout the term of this lease, to purchase and maintain a renters personal liability insurance policy which provides limits of liability to third parties in an amount not less than [$100,000] per occurrence through an insurance company or insurance agent authorized to issue insurance in this state. While you are only required to have personal liability insurance, we highly recommend that you obtain coverage for your personal property too. Personal property coverage protects your property in the event of theft, fire or weather-related loss to your property. Most renters insurance policies contain personal liability coverage and personal property coverage for your own property. All residents in your unit must be covered by a personal liability insurance policy.
- 3. Interested Party Requirement. The renters insurance policy you purchase must identify INSURANCE TRACKING, PO BOX 100513, FLORENCE, SC 29502 as a “Party of Interest” or “Interested Party” where the “Party of Interest” or “Interested Party” must be notified within ten (10) days in the event your insurance company or agent cancels or non-renews your policy. Failure to include INSURANCE TRACKING as the “Party of Interest” or “Interested Party” with the above-listed address will constitute a breach of this Lease.
- 4. Insurance Election.
 - a. If you choose not to purchase insurance through the carrier of your choice or are unable to secure satisfactory insurance coverage, you have the option to obtain insurance coverage under an insurance program issued by an insurance carrier we have partnered with. As a resident of this property, you automatically qualify for this coverage with our preferred provider with no underwriting or lengthy application. Participation in this program allows you to conveniently pay the insurance charges with your monthly rent. Following your execution of this Lease, you will be sent a link via email or text message to an online insurance enrollment portal where you must either (i) enroll in the insurance program offered by our preferred provider or (ii) upload proof of insurance provided by another company or agent that meets the requirements set forth in this Addendum. If you choose to participate in this program, you agree that you will be charged monthly for the amount of premium paid to the insurance company, which may be subject to change without notice, but shall not exceed $210 per year. This premium will be collected with your rent to cover the costs of securing personal liability coverage in an amount of $100,000 and personal property coverage selected by you in an amount up to $20,000. The insurance company will issue a certificate of insurance to you that will describe the limits, conditions and terms of the coverage provided. A description of the insurance coverage and the insurance carrier are available by visiting the online portal.
 - b. If you decide not to enroll in the program described above, you will be required to upload proof of insurance coverage to the online portal to meet the Lease’s insurance requirement. If you do not have access to the online portal, you must contact the leasing office and personnel will assist you in the enrollment process.
- 5. Freedom of Choice. At all times, you are able to purchase insurance through the carrier or agency of your choice and are not required to purchase insurance through a particular carrier or agency. However, the insurance must meet the Lease’s minimum requirements at all times.
- 6. Subrogation Allowed. You acknowledge that subrogation is allowed by all parties and that this Addendum supersedes any language to the contrary in the Lease. Accordingly, our commercial insurance carrier may make a claim against you for losses it pays as a result of your negligence, and your insurance carrier may make a claim against us for losses it pays as a result of our negligence. We retain the right to hold you responsible for any loss in excess of your insurance coverage.
- 7. Your Insurance Coverage. By signing this Addendum, you acknowledge that you have purchased (or agree to purchase) the insurance described above, or you have agreed to participate in the insurance program offered by our preferred provider. If you purchase insurance through a carrier or agency other than the preferred provider, you must provide proof of insurance to on-site staff or via the online insurance portal prior to taking possession of the apartment. You further acknowledge that you will keep your insurance policy in-force for the entire term of the Lease. If any material terms of your insurance policy change, you agree to promptly provide proof of the modified policy terms to the on-site staff.
- 8. Default. Unless otherwise prohibited by law, any default under the terms of this Addendum shall be deemed a material default of the Lease, and we are entitled to exercise all rights and remedies under the law. If you fail to obtain and maintain insurance coverage as required by this Addendum, you will be in violation of your Lease. In the event of such default, we may send a written notice to you demanding that you cure the violation by purchasing the insurance and providing evidence of coverage to us. If you fail to supply evidence of insurance to us on or before the specified date set forth in your notice, we reserve the right to obtain personal liability insurance coverage on your behalf, and to charge you monthly for the amount of the premium paid to the insurance company, which may be subject to change without notice, but shall not exceed $180.00 per year. This is an insurance program provided to us by an insurance company we have partnered with and provides [$100,000] in personal liability insurance to you, but does not include any personal property coverage that protects your property in the event of theft, fire or weather damage. Upon your enrollment in the insurance program set forth in this section, the insurance company will deliver you an insurance certificate evidencing and describing the coverage. You may cancel your participation in this insurance program at any time if you purchase your own personal liability insurance policy or renters insurance policy and provide proof of coverage to our on-site staff.

- 9. Consent to Receive Electronic Communications. By signing this addendum and providing your email address to us, you agree that Assurant®, our insurance partner, may communicate with you electronically. These communications are related to the status of your renters insurance, requests for documentation and/or other servicing communications. You may withdraw your consent to receive electronic communications at any time by following the unsubscribe options in the email. You acknowledge that you have the hardware and software suitable for connecting to the Internet, viewing PDF files, and electronic storage capacity to retain the communications and/or a printer. It's your responsibility to provide us with an accurate email address and to promptly update any changes by contacting the leasing office.

10. Miscellaneous.

- a. Except as specifically stated in this Addendum, all other terms and conditions of the Lease shall remain unchanged.
- b. In the event of any conflict between the terms of this Addendum and the terms of the Lease, the terms of this Addendum shall control.
- c. The insurance required by the Lease is not an attempt to limit our liability for its own negligence or your liability for your own negligence.
- d. The Village Apartments, may receive compensation on policies issued by the preferred insurance provider for administrative, brokerage or marketing support.
- e. If you participate in the insurance programs through our preferred provider, we or an affiliate of us may impose a monthly transaction or administrative fee that may be in addition to the insurance charges.
- f. The insurance required by the Lease is not in lieu of, or in any way a component of, the security deposit required by the Lease.
- g. You understand that the personal liability insurance coverage set forth in Section 8 will only cover you for your own liability for injury, loss or damage caused by you (or, in some cases, your occupants or guests) to others and DOES NOT INCLUDE COVERAGE FOR PERSONAL INJURY OR LOSS OR DAMAGE TO YOU OR YOUR PERSONAL PROPERTY. THE PERSONAL LIABILITY INSURANCE DESCRIBED IN SECTION 8 IS LIMITED IN SCOPE AND MAY NOT FULLY PROTECT YOUR INTERESTS.
- h. You must refer to actual insurance policy or certificate for a complete description of the coverage, as this Addendum only provides a general summary. If you have an annual renters insurance policy and decide to switch to the insurance program offered by our preferred provider, please compare the terms of coverage between the two policies, as not all policies are the same and coverage may differ.

By signing below, you acknowledge and agree to be bound to the terms of this Addendum.
